

"Jaded"

I don't wanna call and talk too long
I know it was wrong, but never said I was sorry
Now I've had time to think it over
We're much older and the bone's too big to bury

Isn't it a shame that it ended like that?
Said goodbye forever but you never unpacked
We'll never tell but we never came back

I'm sorry that you're jaded
I could've taken you places
You're lonely now and I hate it
I'm sorry that you're jaded

You're not even willing to look at your part
You just jump in your car and head down so far that you're blurry
Don't know when to stop so you take it too far
I don't know where you are and I'm left in the dark till I'm worried
Oh, and it hurts me

And it's a crying shame that it ended like that
You broke your own heart but you'd never say that
We'll never tell but we never came back

I'm sorry that you're jaded
I could've taken you places
You're lonely now and I hate it
I'm sorry that you're jaded

I won't lie, it won't be easy
When somebody new's near your body
I'll change my number but keep your t-shirt
I don't mind it's torn up and faded

I'm sorry that you're jaded
I could've taken you places
You're lonely now and I hate it
I'm sorry that your jaded

I'm sorry that you're jaded
